

Teacher Passport: Mrs Napier

I am Mrs Napier and I will be teaching Mrs Knight's current class with Mrs Slow on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays.

Mrs Slow, Ms Cook and Ms Meradith will also be working in the year group.

What were your favourite subjects when you were at school?

When I was at school I loved English, History and Drama. When I went on to study in college, I was able to study Psychology also. I find it very interesting to understand how humans think. When I went to University, I studied English with Drama.

What is your favourite subject to teach?

In spite of not being very good at it in school I like teaching maths. When I became a teacher, I restudied a lot of maths I was taught as a child and found lots of shortcuts that helped me be more confident and I love sharing these with the children I teach. I also love teaching art as I love seeing all the different outcomes of my class.

What is your favourite book and why?

I love to read and have always used it as way of escaping to different worlds. I really enjoy reading Harry Potter and visiting all the different magical places in my mind.

What do you like best about teaching at Staplehurst?

I enjoy teaching reading so that I can discuss all the new words with my class.

What did you want to be when you were younger?

When I was little, I always wanted to be an actress. I was in lots of my school plays and even a local pantomime.

What hobbies do you enjoy?

I love reading lots of books, I like to go to the library to find new stories. I still love the theatre and love to go as much as possible but since moving out of London and having my son I don't get to go as often find this is more of a special treat. I love being outside and going on long walks with my friends and family. Finally, I like to play my playstation when I get some spare time!

What three words would describe you?

Lively, approachable and kind.

If you were on a desert island what two things would you take with you?

Books – I love to read so as many as I'm allowed.

Pizza – I think it would be good to have something to eat and I love pizza!
