What were your favourite subjects when you were at school?

I loved getting out and about and messy! I loved Science, Art and learning new languages. I'm pretty good at French and Spanish.

What is your favourite subject to teach?

Science, Art and P.E. – all the messy, fun and active ones!

What is your favourite book and why?

The Kingkiller Chronicles by Patrick Rothfuss It's a series of books set in a fantasy land following the adventures of a boy called Kvothe as he learns magic, plays music, battles bandits, and makes friends for life.

What do you like best about teaching at Staplehurst?

My favourite thing about teaching at Staplehurst is the children! You are all so lovely, friendly and helpful. I have taught here long enough so see my first class reach the top of the school and I'm so proud of how far everyone has come.

What did you want to be when you were younger?

When I was 3 years old, I told my mum I wanted to be a footballer – I changed my mind pretty quickly when I realised I wasn't very good at playing football! Then when I was growing up, I wanted to be a vet so I could look after all the sick animals.

What hobbies do you enjoy?

I love to cook and experiment with different flavours and styles of cooking. I can crochet and have made lots of scarves and gloves, as well as little toys for my nieces and nephews. I enjoy time outside, particularly in my garden, growing beautiful flowers. I also love playing with my animals – my dog and my chickens!

What three words would describe you?

Funny, kind and caring.

If you were on a desert island what two things would you take with you?

I would take a magic lamp so I have a genie who could grant me 3 wishes, and I would take my family.
